

Julia RuLon
Julia.RuLon@ttu.edu

Objective:

To obtain a position within graphic design to improve and execute techniques to make design grow.

Awards:

Teachers Federal Credit Union Scholarship (TFCU), June 2014

Dual credit courses from El Paso community college based on merit, August 2012-May 2014

Volunteer:

Sierra Providence Hospital East Medical Center, El Paso, TX, February 2011 to Spring 2018

Neonatal Intensive care unit and Nursery

Organized infant's physical development charts and delivered hugs (bracelet) to Labor and Delivery, scanned admission packets

Cleaned and stocked cribs, cabinets with formula, diapers, bath items, and blankets

Transported babies to mother's room with nurse's supervision

Education:

Texas Tech University, Lubbock TX, January 2018 to present

Major: Graphic Design

Minor: Printmaking

Graphic Design classes: Intro to the design process, Computer Design Methods 1 & 2, Symbols, Typography, Web design

Printmaking: Intro to printmaking

El Paso Community College, El Paso, TX, January 2016 to December 2017

Major: Multi-disciplinary studies

New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, NM August 2014 -December 2015

Major: Biology

Skills:

Technology skills-Microsoft word, Power point, Excel, Publisher Adobe suite

Interpersonal skills-Creative, Organized, Advocate, time management

Artistic skills- Drawing, Painting

Recreational skills-Japanese (simple sentences), Play guitar and trombone

Work Experience:

Barnes & Nobles at Texas Tech University bookstore, Lubbock TX, May 2018 to present

Assisted patrons in researching and finding textbooks

Placed purchase orders for textbooks and send fax to textbook publishing companies

Organized textbooks, school supplies, and mail on shelves

Other Experience:

Texas Tech University Vernacular Savages Orchestra, Lubbock TX, January 2018-December 2019

Performed Celtic music in front of small audiences and section rehearsals

Explore themes such as Apocalypse, Victorian Era, 1900s New Orleans

Abstracted a different idea of a classic orchestra and expanded on Celtic